Description

Every inch a Cobalt, with legendary standards of construction in place, the 200 is feature-rich and amenity-laden, with a true walk-thru entry at the transom, a multiple-use sunpad, a water-level swim platform, and fully digital instrumentation. A V6 engine powers the 200 handily, with accompanying fuel savings, but no sacrifice of heart-throbs. The sculpted hull speaks for itself.

Here's a cockpit layout that cries out for conversation while creating huge blocks of storage: under the sunpad, just behind passenger seating at the helm - enough room for several wakeboards, skis, and scuba gear - and, fore of the windshield, stowage for lines. The unadulterated luxury that is Cobalt upholstery asserts itself from wraparound bow to the chaise lounge astern, hand-sewn and double-welted all the way. The dash design is open, and sporty. With inviting comfort assured for captain and 12 lucky guests, the 200 shares fully in the Cobalt tradition of bringing friends and family together.
